TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Twice in today's Gospel we hear the phrase 'Do not be afraid.' We are told that this or similar phrases are to be found 366 times in the bible! That is one for each day of the year – including leap year.

Jesus in the Gospel speaks of how precious we are in God's sight: every hair on our head has been counted, we are worth more than many sparrows! To trust fully in God is to live in his light, to live a life of virtue avoiding all that is contrary to his ways. Truly, then, we shall have no cause for fear.

THIS WEEK: Saturday brought some First Holy Communion children for Confession. Sunday was wall to wall First Holy Communions at our three churches. Huge congregations with well-behaved children wonderfully supported by the staff of our three schools. Monday was a day of preparation for the hosting of the Deanery Clergy Conference and an evening of 'deadheading roses'. Tuesday: said meeting and lunch. Wednesday brought us the funeral of dear Mr O'Donnell. Class Masses continue at some of our schools. There has been a lot of reorganisation of storage spaces in the JP II Centre with the uniformed groups and others. Dear Mark Johnson's funeral was held on Thursday at St Cuthbert's. Also a meeting with the surveyor at St Cuthbert's. And another meeting of the Flower Festival group. SJV school staff interviews and then to OLA for yet another funeral of dear Mr McAvoy on Friday.

GRAND QUIZ NIGHT: to raise funds to send some of our young people to World Youth Day. St John Paul Centre Glastonbury Ave – July 6th 7.30pm, Hot Pot Supper, BYOD, £5 lots of prizes & fun.

DR ELAINE ALLEN: our headteacher at SJV is leaving that post this summer. There will be a Mass of Thanksgiving for her service at 4pm on Friday 14th July followed by an informal reception in the St John Paull II Centre.

CONGRATULATIONS: to the boys and girls who made their First Holy Communion.

THANK YOU: to Anthony Schools who is hanging up his gardening gloves and who over the last years has tended the shrubs and grass cutting at SJV.

MANY THANKS: to our Catechists who guided our children through the First Holy Communion programme. Also to those who worked so hard to make the celebration memorable.
