THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

We don't often get to celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration on a Sunday, but this year we do. This is one of the pivotal moments in the Gospel; after this encounter with his Father and the prophets, witnessed by the three Apostles, Jesus sets his face for Jerusalem and all that would happen there.

In many ways the Transfiguration was for the Apostles, with this image imprinted upon their minds, a support when they encountered the scandal of the cross.
