TWELFTH IN ORDINARY TIME

'The calming of the storm,' is often how today's Gospel passage is styled. The picture is of a storm tossed boat about to sink. These seasoned fishermen had done all they knew to keep it afloat and it was only at the 11th hour that they turned to Jesus. Many lessons can be learned; one is not just to turn to Jesus at the moment of greatest need but rather have a continual dialogue throughout life's journey.
