FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel sees a new departure in Jesus' ministry. Here we find him commissioning his disciples to go out in his name to preach the good news, to stand firm against evil and to bring God's healing grace. In this mission they were to rely on God's providence; having only the bare essentials, they were to trust that the Lord would provide for them. In our consumerist society it is easy to surround ourselves with possessions and in doing so we can erect a barrier to God's providence.
