SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel is rather appropriate as the holiday season approaches. We hear Jesus tell the Apostles that they should rest after all the hard work they had accomplished. He even goes so far as to take them to a quiet place for rest and relaxation. The message here, even though Jesus found crowds waiting for him, is that rest and relaxation are part of the cycle of life blessed by God.

READERS: Thanks to those who attended a workshop. (Re)commissioning will take place soon. There will be a further work-shop at SJV on Thurs 25th July at 7pm

SJV SCHOOL OUTSTANDING - That is the judgement of the inspectors for the Section 48 denominational inspection. 'Outstanding' doesn't just happen, it reflects the hard work and devotion of the school staff. An enormous well done!
CONGRATULATIONS too, to OLA School on the Good outcome of their inspection. A well-earned holiday is called for.
