TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Riches, it would seem, (even on our level) are an hindrance to a relationship with God. Being rich or just 'comfortable' is not a sin. The danger, as we see in today's Gospel, is that wealth and the cares of this world can impede our relationship with God. These material things can demand so much of our time that God is pushed to the margins. It is only when we put God in the first place that all other things fall into order.

COMMUNION FROM THE CHALICE: Four ministers for each Mass required – 2 one week, 2 the next. Without sufficient ministers we cannot move forward. Give contact details to the clergy.
